various issues that have been presented to the Attorney General. Those will be inserted in toto in the Legislative Journal, Mr. President. (See pages 29-43.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: If I could have your attention a moment, there are several new members who will be coming into the Legislature come the 1st of January and several of them are here today. I would like to introduce Senator John Weihing, over under the south balcony, and his wife, Shirley, who come from Gering, Nebraska and they will be representing the 48th District. Please welcome them. Senator Hoagland, did you have somebody you would like to introduce.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Colleagues, it is my pleasure to introduce my successor, Brad Ashford, from Omaha. Brad, you are over there somewhere.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Brad, can we see you?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Where did you go, Brad? There he is. He is back in the back.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Wave your hand again, Brad.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Brad is an individual that I have known for many years. He is a fellow attorney from Omaha and he will serve his district and the State of Nebraska very well. It is a pleasure to have him down here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you, Senator Hoagland. Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Mr. President, members of the body, I would like to introduce Senator Scott Moore who will be your representative from the 24th District, a very able-bodied individual. He was well trained. He worked for me for 4 1/2 years. So I am sure that he is going to do a very good job for you. Scott Moore, where are you? Scott, where are you? He is near because I just visited with him not too long ago.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right, thank you, Senator Sieck. Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, and members, I would like to introduce to you the newly elected member from the 38th District, one that is going to solve the problems, I hope, of the agricultural situation in this state, Mr. Owen Elmer.
