

very bad but mostly because of the way they influence the market system themselves and do so deliberately. Without the knowledge that apparently you might have, I am going to support the resolution at this time. As I said before, I will take another look at it and may well be able to reverse my position, but at this point in time I am going to support the resolution.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Harris, please.

SENATOR HARRIS: Call the question, please.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you. The lights just went off before you called it. Senator Wesely, would you like to close, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Just in brief, I appreciate Senator Schmit and Senator Harris's support, Senator Peterson from Norfolk. We do think this can be heard back in Washington on a very important matter. There is a lot to discuss here. This is a very important issue but we are out of time and I would just pass on that and ask for your support for the resolution.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the debate. The question is the adoption of the resolution. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. A record vote has been requested. Please vote if you care to. Have you all voted that care to? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read the record vote as found on page 56 of the Legislative Journal.) 34 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, on adoption of the resolution.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Resolution number 2 is adopted. Senator Cal Carsten has an important announcement and I wish we would all listen carefully. I think this may be of interest to many of you. Senator Cal. (Gavel.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, recently you received a memo from our office advising you of a screening that will be available and is available to you from the State Employee Wellness Program. It is a health risk appraisal and it only takes about 10 minutes. Yesterday there were a couple of senators that did go through it, but I think it would be well if as many of you as can take 10 minutes and go down to...where is it, in...

SPEAKER NICHOL: The Judiciary hearing room, Cal.
