SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, several of you have been asking what we are going to do tomorrow. We will start at nine-thirty in the morning and, of course, take up the three bills we discussed today to advance and amend them, whatever we wish to do. And after we are through with those three, we will go to the situation of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln's pictures in the front of the session (sic) which we will talk about most likely in the afternoon if we should go that far with the other three bills in advancing them. We will most likely start at nine-thirty each morning through Thursday and at the rate we are going we should be able to handle these and get out of here in good time Thursday forenoon. But what do I know about it? But we can count on starting tomorrow at nine-thirty. Senator Eret, would you like to adjourn us until nine-thirty tomorrow, please.

SENATOR ERET: Mr. Speaker, I move that we adjourn until nine-thirty tomorrow morning.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until nine-thirty tomorrow morning.
