

God knows what all for some kind of redress, and I have heard it with a hell of a lot less impact than what I'm describing. We have some well-intentioned, uninformed people who, frankly, don't know what they are talking about. You know someone said one time there may be a crook from time to time in politics,...

SENATOR CARSTEN: Thirty seconds.

SENATOR SCHMIT: ...but he's not necessarily a bad legislator. But God protect me from the well-intentioned, uninformed person who qualifies, and not being personal, as a dummy. I ask you to support the bill and to support the amendment and to pass the bill.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Okay, thank you. Senator Haberman, please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, I call the question.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Question has been called for. Do I see five hands? I do. Question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor will vote aye. Those opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Debate has ceased. Senator DeCamp, would you like to close on your amendment, please.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Rod Johnson a question, and maybe one or two others. But nobody is here. Is it remotely possible we could have a call of the house and at least find out how many are here, then I'd have Rod here and a couple of others, too. I'd ask for a call of the house, first.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor will signify by voting aye, those opposed no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The house is under call. Will all senators please return to their desk. Those that are not in the Chamber, please return, and press your green button to let us know that you are here. Senator Chambers, Senator Chizek. Senator Hefner is here. Senator Higgins is here. Senator Hoagland, Senator
