

it out here for debate. That is why it was just a little bit like deja vu yesterday when I thought we were going to discuss whether Washington or Lincoln could hang here, and my friend, Senator McFarland, said well that will create bad press, and bad discussion, so we didn't. But anyway, I have enjoyed the 16 years. I'm going on to whatever. I don't know, that is the absolute truth. Ernie had me lobbying this morning and said I might try that, or get a job with a bank. Well, no banks have talked to me, and no lobbyists have shown much inclination to share clients. So, I don't know what I'm going to do. But I know this, I'm going to take care of my kids. I've got three little girls, in fact, I'm baby-sitting for one today while mommy does something else. I'm going to enjoy life. I wish you all the best of luck. Believe me, I do believe, hard as it is to say, that probably losing the election was the greatest and best thing that ever happened to me, and probably the only way I could cure myself of this affliction we call the Unicameral. Thank you very much. (Applause.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: As John might say himself, it ain't going to be the same around here. To you three gentlemen, certainly we have appreciated you. We wish you the best of luck, and we are happy to honor you in a small way today. Come back and see us often and we'll show you a good time. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything else?

CLERK: Mr. President, just one item and that is your Enrolling Clerk has presented to the Governor LB 3 just passed on Final Reading.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Eret.

SENATOR ERET: Mr. President, I move that the Legislative Journal for the seventh day be approved as prepared by the Clerk.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You've heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. It is approved. Senator Tom Vickers, please.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I move that the Eighty-Ninth Legislature, Third Special Session of the Legislature, having finished all business before it, now at 11:56 a.m. adjourn sine die.
