

SENATOR HALL: Pass over that, Mr. President.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lynch wants now to pass over his amendment, as I understand. Mr. President, I have nothing further on the bill.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Nothing further on the bill. Senator Warner, no, Senator Nichol. It is Senator Nichol's bill, excuse me, or do you want Senator Warner to do it, Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: With the many things that are involved in this bill, I certainly would think that we would want to discuss it further before we advance it. Are there other bills that we can take, Mr. Clerk, before we advance this one?

CLERK: Big help, (inaudible).

SPEAKER NICHOL: For example, Mr. President,...

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: There is another bill having to do with your expenses that should be advanced.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: I am not trying to...

SENATOR CARSTEN: That is not going to take too much time I don't imagine...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay.

SENATOR CARSTEN: ...Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, if it is the will of the group to advance the bill in the condition it is in, it is not my thinking that we should delay the bill unnecessarily. However, we are advancing it awfully shoddily, it seems to me at this point with so many amendments pending that people do not wish to take up. What I foresee, Mr. President, is that if we should wait with these many amendments until Select File, that perhaps it will
