

personnel will please leave the floor. Those senators that are not in the Chamber that can hear me, please return and register your presence for us, please. Senator Hoagland. Senator Landis. Senator Nelson. Senator Pappas. Senator Remmers, will you poke your button. Thank you. Senator Smith, will you register your presence, please. Senator Pappas we are still looking for. There he is. Everybody is here now, I believe. The question is, everybody is here now that has not been excused, Senator Nichol. The question is, shall the Scofield amendment be adopted? All those in favor will vote aye, those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 13 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SENATOR CARSTEN: The Scofield amendment has been adopted to LB 1. Do we have anything further, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Senator Scofield, I assume the other two amendments go away, Senator?

SENATOR SCOFIELD: (Microphone not turned on immediately.) ...does, Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR CARSTEN: They are withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Vickers would move to amend the bill.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Vickers, on your amendment to LB 1, please.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I'd like to ask unanimous consent to replace that amendment with one of Senator Schmit's. (Schmit amendment appears on pages 52-53 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CARSTEN: Are there any objections to replacing the Vickers amendment with an amendment by Senator Schmit? I hear none. It is so ordered. The call is raised. Senator Schmit, on your amendment that replaces the Vickers amendment, please.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President and members, this amendment is essentially the same amendment which we discussed several days ago only it has been reduced to $150,000. It was explained several times why I don't think we need the money now. I would
