

subject but I think I have opened it up again and tried to stir your hearts to come across. I know it is difficult. This is a difficult session but we are doing things here that should not be done and I am asking you to reconsider and vote yes for this $300,000 back into these services. Thank you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Thank you, Senator Sieck. There are no more lights on. Do you want to...you have an opportunity to use another 5 minutes if you want for your closing.

SENATOR SIECK: I think silence is better than anything and let your minds work with it, although I do feel I need a call of the house because many of the people are gone, and I am going to ask for a call of the house and then I will have a few words to say.

SENATOR CARSTEN: A call of the house has been requested. All those in favor of going under call will vote aye, those opposed no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

SENATOR CARSTEN: We are under call. All senators please return to your chairs and push your presence button. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Those senators that can hear me, please return to the Chamber and register your presence please. We are under all. Yes, Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: I think there is a couple or a few individuals who may be excused but they are in the Capitol. I wonder whether we can have them come up, too.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator Haberman. Senator Chizek, will you register your presence, please. Senator Vard Johnson. Senator Hefner, Senator Lynch, Senator Peterson. Would the senators please get in your chairs, take your places please. Senator Hefner. Senator Hefner, please. Senator Hefner is the only one that isn't excused that is not here, Senator Sieck. Would you like to proceed. Senator Hefner is on his way.

SENATOR SIECK: It is hard for me to say any more. What I have said some of the people that are here now haven't heard.

SENATOR CARSTEN: (Gavel.)

SENATOR SIECK: But they do realize that I am serious and I think it is a serious business. I feel that...I am leaving, I
