

time to time would like to be involved in the process of review of those rules and regulations, and so that is why we changed it to simply request only.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Okay, so with the committee amendments, nothing is really changed, in essence, from the way it is now with the exception of we are putting the way it is now in the committee amendments by which we simply say, upon request, it shall be provided.

SENATOR CONWAY: Prior to coming to the microphone, I only reviewed the committee amendments, not the bill itself, and there may be things that Senator Coordsen could address that's specifically in the bill that will create a change that is moving the direction he is interested in.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Before we move on, we would like to recognize some guests in the south balcony from Senator Pirsch and Senator Will's district, Omaha. We have 57 friends of St. Bernards of Omaha, among them, Sister Klosterman, friend of Senator Lynch, and Senator Lynch's sister, Betty Camenzind. We would welcome you to the Legislature, folks. Thanks for coming, and the next speaker is Senator Lynch on the amendments.

SENATOR LYNCH: Mr. President and members, by the way, that is pronounced Cam-en-zind. She is a Switzlander now, so that you know the difference, the oldest of our family. I was going to ask a question of somebody, Senator Coordsen, if I could.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Fine.

SENATOR LYNCH: Rules and regulations are those things developed, I assume we are talking about the same thing, those rules and regulations that are developed by the agencies of the state that, in fact, developed administrative policy for that agency, is that right or wrong?

SENATOR COORDSEN: And implement legislation when we've redelegated that authority, yes.

SENATOR LYNCH: Yeah, how often does that happen, do you know? Usually they wouldn't develop rules and regs unless we authorize
