LB 425

the same way that expediency does. Because in many instances, expediency and morality become synonymous. I think it is expedient for some people to try to pass this bill.

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The moral thing to do would be to make this information available to those who will be affected by it. This amendment is a moral amendment. It is an amendment in behalf of knowledge, information, and enlightenment. So I hope that we can get enough votes to attach the amendment. And, Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a call of the house so that...oh, we are under call.

SPEAKER BAACK: We are under call but we will make sure everyone has checked in.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: We are looking for Senators Abboud, Schimek, and Haberman. We are looking for Senators Abboud and Haberman. We are now waiting on Senator Abboud. Senator Chambers, we have not been able to locate Senator Abboud. Should we go ahead? Just a few more seconds, okay. Senator Chambers, did you request a roll call? We will now proceed to a vote on the amendment by Senator Chambers. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on the amendment by Senator Chambers, have you all voted? Roll call vote has been requested. Mr. Clerk. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 1849-50 of the Legislative Journal.) 19 ayes, 19 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment fails. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have to the bill is by Senator Landis.

SPEAKER BAACK: The call is raised. Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Is this in the Journal, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Senator, it is not. I can read it if you'd like.

SENATOR LANDIS: Is this the one that replaces the word
