reason, I oppose the Smith amendment. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Will. The next speaker is Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Mr. Speaker, how many other people do we have to speak on this issue?

SPEAKER BAACK: Four. Four more.

SENATOR SMITH: I think what I will do is hold off. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABOUD: Mr. President, colleagues, I was wondering if Senator Smith would yield to a question.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Smith, would you answer a question, please.

SENATOR SMITH: Yes.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Smith, I wasn't here right for your introduction, was this amendment prepared by the Department of Revenue or was this a committee...

SENATOR SMITH: No, this amendment is an amendment that I had prepared...

SENATOR ABOUD: Okay.

SENATOR SMITH: ...because of my own personal beliefs. It was the same one I introduced in committee.

SENATOR ABOUD: I see. And is this amendment...is it the intent of this amendment to focus primarily on video lotteries? Is that the intent?

SENATOR SMITH: Absolutely.

SENATOR ABOUD: And how does it affect the current operation of...

SENATOR SMITH: Keno?
