

these systems and we can start from scratch. And that's a fair result too if you don't like the provisions of 167, but they are a conceptual framework that don't need to be studied additionally to stand on their own and deserve your scrutiny and stand up to the scrutiny that this body will give it.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time.

SENATOR LANDIS: I urge you to resist the bracket. We'll go through the provisions. If you like them, vote for them. If you don't like them, don't vote for them and close these systems down and we'll start from scratch next January. That's fair too, but we don't need to study this issue some more and put off...

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...making this decision.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Landis. Senator Chizek.

SENATOR CHIZEK: Colleagues, I had mentioned to Senator Kristensen that I was going to be offering an amendment. I'm going to offer the amendment on Select. I have some concerns about the stability of certain areas that provide the insurance. We are aware of private...private companies going under. We know of the budget problems that are acute in all kinds of cities, counties and municipalities. I would feel more comfortable if there was a further liability question addressed or perhaps even getting to the point, colleagues, where we have a six to nine-month reserve. And I wanted to let you know, and Senator Kristensen, that I will be offering that on Select File. I have some strong reservations and concerns. The red flag is starting to pop up and I would hope that we recognize that there could be some potential danger here.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chizek. Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I would like to ask some questions of Senator Landis, I guess.

SENATOR LANDIS: Yes.

SENATOR WESELY: Since you didn't have a chance to work through the provisions of the committee amendments, I, again, I
