senators need to bite the bullet, and with that I hope you support my amendment. And I don't possibly see where Senator Hefner is going to do it for $15,000. He tells me, well, Legislative Research, they're working anyhow, someone has to pay for that and the letter here says, no, we're too busy, we don't have time to take care of it. Somebody has to pay the postage stamps. They didn't even use bulk rate postage. Somebody has to pay again and so I'm not going to go down the list any further. All of you can read, but it's time that we show our taxpayers at home we can bite the bullet and there are a few programs that we need to look at and this is one of them.

SPEAKER BAACK: You've heard Senator Nelson's closing. We will now proceed to vote on the amendment by Senator Nelson. I would remind the body that all amendments on appropriations bills do require 25 votes and this does require 25 votes.

SENATOR NELSON: I'll see if I need a call of the house or...

SPEAKER BAACK: We will now vote on the amendment by Senator Nelson. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Senator Nelson.

SENATOR NELSON: I don't know how long I can talk here. It's got quite a little ways to go here, but I suppose in essence of time I should call for a call of the house, please.

SPEAKER BAACK: We have a request for the house to go under call. Those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no.

SENATOR NELSON: And a roll call vote.

SPEAKER BAACK: Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 8 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. Senator Crosby, would you check in, please. Senator Elmer, would you check in, please. We're looking for Senators Abboud, Lynch, Wickersham and Peterson. We are now waiting for
