

young people how to get abortions, if they choose to give that information.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So, for the purpose of this record, the only thing that can be told to this young lady is that she would have to go to court, or go to a judge, if she does not want to notify her parents.

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR WITHEM: That's the only thing the school is required to tell them.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In your opinion, would that information, under the circumstances that the young lady would be faced with, of any real value to her in trying to deal with her problem? To say, well go to court, you can go to court.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yeah, I think it is, to know that they have a legal option available to them.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that they would know where the court is, or how to get into court, or who to consult to try to find that out?

SENATOR WITHEM: I think they probably would be able to get that information, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think...Okay, thank you. My time is up, so I won't go further cause I'd run out of time before I could finish.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Crosby, followed by Senator Withem, and then Senator Chambers. Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Madam President. My apology. Have to start being a parent and saying...Senator Withem, I have a question on this particular amendment. I'm kind of not following why you want to have a hearing from the Board of Education? Why do you think that's really necessary?

SENATOR WITHEM: The reason I think it's necessary is because again I'm trying to respond to some concerns that some constituents had. One of their concerns is, and this is not my