

today, the more level playing field, if that is the right term, could be accomplished. And I would move the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Warner. Discussion on the amendment by Senators Conway and Warner. Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. I apologize to Senator Warner. Would he respond to a question?

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Warner, would you respond, please?

SENATOR WARNER: Sure.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Warner, is this amendment the same amendment that you talked about earlier?

SENATOR WARNER: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: That I talked about?

SENATOR WARNER: Senator Conway had an amendment that actually was similar to the one that Senator Lamb had that took everything off, and he substituted the amendment that I was going to offer for that one. And so this is the same amendment. It does, as I indicated to you before, still included reference to motor vehicles prior to your adoption this morning. I believe, if you check with E & R, that that primarily will come out as an E & R amendment, but it may need another something, but...

SENATOR HALL: So in other words, the only change in this amendment would be the change regarding what personal property tax would come back on the rolls, is that, right?

SENATOR WARNER: What the effect of this amendment would be that that personal property that is currently exempt by statute would continue to be, and that personal property that is taxed, as it currently is taxed, would remain taxed as of January 1, 1992.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, members, I would rise in support of this amendment. I don't think that, frankly, the issue of all the personal property tax coming back on is going to sell. From that last vote on the Lamb amendment, it appears that, if from what I have heard on the floor, that
