

work, it's fair in its approach. I've heard time and time again how people want to pay sales tax, they don't want to pay this, they don't want to pay that, they want to pay sales tax. Here's a way to do it, here's a way to do it with the depreciation and the income tax, it's a fair proposal. I would urge adoption.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Hall. On the...We have a list of speakers, I'll check to see if you want to speak on the Hall amendment. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Yes, Mr. Speaker, I will speak to the Hall amendment. I sit here and I listen to Senator Hall. Senator Hall, would you yield to a question?

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR MOORE: Do you propose this as a one-year tax?

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR MOORE: That's what I was afraid you were going say, because actually, you know, Senator Hall I mean gave a stirring speech on tax policy. I agree with about all of it. The only problem I have, and this is one of those things where I don't know whether it's worth doing for one year. If you're going to do it, let's be up front about it and say we're going to do it permanently.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Moore,...

SENATOR MOORE: Go ahead and answer, if you want.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Yeah, Senator Moore, I have offered the sales tax to services bill at least a number of different times. I...if I can use just thirty seconds.

SENATOR MOORE: Sure.

SENATOR HALL: ...offered it, Senator Vard Johnson was chairing the committee, the Revenue Committee at the time. And I was newly oiled. I had only been there, I think, in my second year. And it was at the end of a long day of revenue bills, and Senator Johnson let me open. And I exempted out a few things,
