

resolved but we'll see how Senator Moore's amendment...if it goes, obviously, I can live with it. There are others who will have concerns with it but...but I see at least an attempt to move us to...

SENATOR CONWAY: One minute.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: ...some kind of compromise on this.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Senator Johnson. The next speaker is Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President. May I ask a question of Senator Moore, please.

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Moore, would you respond?

SENATOR MOORE: I will attempt to, Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay. Well, I just wanted to know, Senator Moore, what would your amendment to Senator Johnson's amendment do?

SENATOR MOORE: The only thing it does is lower the 20...lower from 20 cents to 10 cents.

SENATOR SMITH: On both the existing and expansion?

SENATOR MOORE: Yes...

SENATOR SMITH: Or on existing?

SENATOR MOORE: Both.

SENATOR SMITH: On both. So it's just cutting in half everything that you're doing...that Senator Johnson is doing in his amendment?

SENATOR MOORE: Well, Senator Johnson's amendment didn't affect that.

SENATOR SMITH: Well, his was 20 cents.

SENATOR MOORE: It's been 20 cents. I mean, he didn't change the 20-cent issue. And actually...
