

January 22, 1992 LB 522

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHIZEK: ...modified substantially so that the introducer is happy with the amendment. The people that requested the legislation are happy with the amendment. And, again, if we can't get the waiver, then it goes by the wayside and we will come back and deal again. But we oppose the fingerprinting, which all of us agreed was wrong, and so, again, colleagues, I would just ask that you support the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chizek. Senator Chizek, your light is on next, do you wish to speak now?

SENATOR CHIZEK: Are there other lights?

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes. Senator Robinson.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Mr. President, members of the body, I would like to ask Senator Chizek a couple of questions. Senator Chizek, if...I'd like to have you just go through a little scenario here. If I am a...say I graduated from Anselmo-Merna High School and I come into Omaha and I am looking for a teaching position. Could you tell me just exactly or as close as you can on what would happen as far as my record, my background being checked? I don't think he is listening.

SENATOR CHIZEK: You didn't say now or if the bill was passed?

SENATOR ROBINSON: If the bill was passed.

SENATOR CHIZEK: All right, if you applied, you would have made application. You would then go to the State Patrol Office in Omaha.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Who would go to the State Patrol Office?

SENATOR CHIZEK: The perspective employee.

SENATOR ROBINSON: You mean the school that was employing...

SENATOR CHIZEK: The perspective employee.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. And then what happens?
