SENATOR WESELY: Yeah, I don't know for sure, I'm not...

SENATOR ROBINSON: You don't know what his...

SENATOR WESELY: It says practitioner.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Is he a medical doctor?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, I'll find out.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, I would like to know.

SENATOR WESELY: He's a doctor of pediatric medicine, I think, is what that term stands for. McCook Hospital's Jack Clark, Administrator there; Charles Dougherty, who is a director of the Center for Health Policy and Ethics at Creighton University.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Is he...what's...what's his background?

SENATOR WESELY: He is a Ph.D. and he works at Creighton University.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Ph.D., okay.

SENATOR WESELY: He's a professor.

SENATOR ROBINSON: And the other guy, Kurt Vorhem (phonetic) was a hospital administrator.

SENATOR WESELY: Right, from McCook.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay.

SENATOR WESELY: Then Connie Tussing who is a dental hygienist.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Dental hygienist, okay.

SENATOR WESELY: From Lincoln. Linda Walsh, who is a respiratory therapist.

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Is a what?
