

February 18, 1992 LB 1011, 1115

refers more to animals than to people. I think it refers to worrying a herd of sheep, that dogs can do that, as you understand.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: And it is my understanding that worrying includes nipping at the back of the feet of these sheep.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Well, just...I guess I wouldn't have a problem with that. I visualize it as a barking dog around a pen of sheep and running them around and causing them anxiety and maybe other type of damage to themselves more than the dog doing the damage.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: All right, thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Morrissey. Senator Will.

SENATOR WILL: Madam President, I move the advancement of LB 1011 to E & R for engrossment.

PRESIDENT MOUL: You've heard the motion to advance LB 1011. All those in favor please say aye. Opposed nay. LB 1011 is advanced. Before we proceed, I would like to call the senators' attention to the area under the north balcony. Special guest today of Senator Coordsen is Larry Fangmeier of Hebron, Nebraska. Would you please rise and be recognized. Welcome to the Chambers. Also seated under the north balcony is a special guest of Senator Lamb. He is Jim Jones of Custer County. Please rise and be recognized and welcome to the Chambers. We will now proceed with LB 1115.

CLERK: Madam President, I have no E & R. Senator Beutler would move to amend the bill. (See FA268 on page 872 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Madam President, members of the Legislature, this is a little bill that requires or that...it does not require but basically allows an accountant auditing municipalities to report illegal acts and indications. There was a statute which the Urban Affairs Committee identified that might prohibit that kind of reporting, and this little bill happily now allows them to report. What my amendment does, and it is being passed out to you here shortly, is merely encourage
