

February 25, 1992 LB 1120

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Hall, would you respond, please.

SENATOR CROSBY: Taxable would business machinery and...what does the word "would", what's left out or not put in there?

SENATOR HALL: The word would be "be".

SENATOR CROSBY: Beg your pardon.

SENATOR HALL: The word that is left out there, Senator Crosby, (e) should read like this.

SENATOR CROSBY: Oh, taxable would be business...

SENATOR HALL: Right.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay, thank you, I'm sorry.

SENATOR HALL: That's all right.

SENATOR CROSBY: I just couldn't quite...

SENATOR HALL: My mistake. We just dropped a two-letter word.

SENATOR CROSBY: I can't blame my staff on my stupidity. I'm responsible for all of it.

SENATOR HALL: I shouldn't blame them, they are wonderful. They keep me from looking really silly.

SENATOR CROSBY: I know. You do have a very good staff. I have another question though before you sit down.

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR CROSBY: The 6.7 million retailers, what point...is that 3 percent or a cent and a half again?

SENATOR HALL: It's the same provision that was in LB 829.

SENATOR CROSBY: Aha, that's what I thought.

SENATOR HALL: So it's structured...
