

sitting there...no, he doesn't have callused hands, I was going to say sitting there with cal...and he was talking to old Baba up there at McLean, Nebraska, big guy, and you know who Baba is, he's that mythical character that's in the...has the pickup truck, no seat belts, Senator Horgan, got some boots on, got a little manure on his boots. That's...but you know Senator Landis brought tears to my eyes when he was trying to tell Baba up there at McLean, Nebraska that he ought to pay more taxes. Now he really got to me. You know, it's one of the few times that Senator Landis has gotten to me, but he really got to me that time. But we talk about cutting, cutting our losses. We're there, folks, we're there, whether we like it or not. Go back to 1120. Senator Robak says I would not tax myself. I'd get in that booth, I would never tax myself. Oh, I forgot to add one other of the little guys. I'm the little guy, little old gray-haired guy, but I've got enough courage, Senator Robak, to come up and say I would, I would vote for a tax, and I don't use the word, equal. It's right to take it off. You know it and I know it and most of the people know it in here.

SENATOR CONWAY: One long minute.

SENATOR ROBINSON: One more minute. I don't know if I can go that long. Who said that? Senator Lamb has put a lot of thought into this bill. We ought to dump 1063 and we ought to go with Senator Lamb. No use to taking that bridge in between. Let's go with Senator Lamb's bill and I will put my light on again because I have something, another issue to talk about. Thank you. And I know you'll be looking forward to it. Thank you.

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Robak, please.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, that's a tough act to follow so I don't know if I could do it justice, but I wasn't even going to speak on this but I have been accused on the floor and since Senator Robinson is mentioning names, Senator Schellpeper just yesterday told me that I listen to the wrong person, that's the trouble with me, I should be voting for the rural people. Well I represent both rural and urban and I thought that I was really doing my best and I think that at least I'm open to listening which I decided that Senator Schellpeper must not be open to listening, and he accused me of just listening to one side or giving in to a person who is a special interest. Well, nobody...we all know
