

SENATOR COORDSEN: Well, I would suggest perhaps we would talk to...

SENATOR ROBINSON: I don't want to do that.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...Congressman Beutler, who is not too pleased with his redistricting which took plac...which took effect in September of '91.

SENATOR ROBINSON: I can see what's going to happen. The World-Herald is going to put a couple of lines in the newspaper, and I'm going to have people from West Point, Beemer, and in between calling me up, and I'll still have the people from Thurston County call me up, it's going to be a big mess. I really think it will be. I got to...I like to talk to people, I got to answer the phone. I would urge all of you to support the kill motion. I think it's just going to be a state of confusion out there.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Robinson. Senator Rogers, followed by Senators Coordsen, Hefner, Schimek and Beutler. Senator Rogers.

SENATOR ROGERS: Call the question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Are there sufficient seconds? There are. We'll now vote on the motion to cease debate. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 7 nays to cease debate.

PPRESIDENT MOUL: We will proceed with debate. Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. Senator Robinson addressed eloquently his confusion on this issue. I would suggest that confusion exists currently. Bear in mind that again I would repeat the confusion that existed on the part of some people who tried to file for a legislative seat only finding that they had filed in the wrong district. This exists. This would bring the statutes of the State of Nebraska into alignment with the language of the Constitution. I recall in this issue...this question was first
