

Beutler, would you authorize call-ins?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Of course.

SPEAKER BAACK: We are voting on ceasing debate and call-ins have been authorized. The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call.

CLERK: Senator Landis voting yes. Senator Beyer voting yes. Senator Wehrbein voting yes. Senator Withem voting yes. Senator Schellpeper voting yes. Senator Lowell Johnson voting yes. Senator Will voting yes.

SPEAKER BAACK: Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Debate has ceased. Senator Beutler, to close. I will remind the body that we are under call and I would like members to continue to come in and check in if they would, please. We are under call. Members, please report to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Beutler, you may close on your motion to advance.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, whatever you do, don't vote for 1059 to ease my pain. I am feeling no pain, Senator Kristensen. I never do. I enjoy these things especially when I believe myself to be right and I'm sure you feel the same way. The pain you should move to alleviate is your own pain, the pain you feel every session when we're voting to spend money and voting to spend money and voting to spend money and we feel deep down inside that we have all these needs and we give in and we do spend a lot of money, but how often do we get back and get an opportunity to really save some money, to really adjust the system? Wouldn't you like to go home this session and say that besides dealing with the tax issue and besides spending a lot more money on solid waste and this and that, we did take a solid step forward in adjusting the judicial districting system so that in the future we could, in fact, save money. The savings are not illusory. They are demonstrated clearly by the examples that I have given you today. Senator Wickersham says we have done something. We have done nothing in 12 years except, except compromise conflicts within the bar by adding more expense to the taxpayer. Every time, you remember