

present. It would probably be considered...

SENATOR SCHMIT: Why is that?

SENATOR HALL: Because there is no provision to cover it right now, just like there is no provision to cover the fur coat or the diamond ring or the stocks and bonds or the antique china hutch. Even though it happens to be a household item, it could have extreme wealth. It is the example that you go back to that you use with regard to the paintings. Now I also said that there is a factor that weighs into that depending on how I want to claim it, and that factor is the federal income tax, which will weigh much more heavily on my decision on how I classify it than any state system that I have seen. I want to depend on what the feds are going to do to me in terms of how they are going to tax it depending...

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time.

SENATOR HALL: ...on what they do to it as opposed to what the state may want to do to it.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I have some more questions. I will have to put my light on again. Thank you, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Schmit. Senator Lynch. Senator Schimek. Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: I call the question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The question has been called. Are there sufficient seconds? I see five seconds. We will now vote on the motion to cease debate. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 3 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We have ceased debate and I will recognize Senator Moore for closing or Senator Baack. Senator Baack.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Madam President, colleagues, just a very brief closing. I think we have had some good discussion of the amendments and the details of the amendments. This motion is simply to reconsider the vote that was taken yesterday when
