

probably treats 775 as the second coming of Christ, they probably buried this anyway but, you know, that doesn't make a whole lot of sense to me but it does a good job of giving a perfect opportunity to jab the Legislature one more time in looking like we did something that was hidden there. But, nevertheless, Senator Warner is probably right, thanks to the media this is the perception. I don't know...I mean, if you vote to do this, you better...you need to stick around Monday for a couple more days and probably ought to wait a couple more days to do nothing, what the end result will be then because we still won't do anything, so I don't know, I guess I will still vote against Senator Chambers' amendment only because that was the way the bill was written and thanks to the media I'll be painted as the great protector of 775 and that's certainly not my intention. If that's the way the perception is, I have to live with it.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Moore. Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Madam President, I call the question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Motion to call the question. Sufficient seconds. Now vote on the motion to cease debate. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted on the motion to cease debate? Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Madam President, I would ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The house is under call.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, check in then.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Would the senators please check in. Would they also please return to their seats. Senator Byars, Senator Pirsch. Senator Kristensen, Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Lindsay, Senator Haberman. Yes.

SENATOR HEFNER: Madam President, I would accept call in votes.

CLERK: Senator Pirsch voting yes. Senator Byars voting yes.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We're accepting call in votes on the motion to cease debate.
