This bill would change provisions relating to garnishment proceedings.

State Accounting (DAS) states that the provisions of this bill could be incorporated into current procedures, and therefore they estimate no fiscal impact from this bill.

The Supreme Court states that this bill would require changes to JUSTICE, the Court's electronic case management system. The Supreme Court estimates that the JUSTICE changes alone will cost $12,500 in Cash Funds. The Court is still reviewing the bill and may submit an amended fiscal note if additional costs are identified.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB136 amends sections 25-1029 and 25-1056 to provide for the release of certain property attached pursuant to an order of garnishment if no order to pay the judgment creditor has been received by the garnishee within sixty (60) days following the receipt, by the judgment creditor, of the garnishee’s answer to the summons and interrogatories.

State Accounting would be required to monitor the number of days lapsed from the time an answer to summons and interrogatories is provided to the time an order to pay the judgment creditor is received.

The requirements of the bill would be incorporated into the current payroll garnishment procedures used by State Accounting staff and therefore there would be no fiscal impact.
