LB350 amends the statutory framework for restoring a defendant to competency to require earlier and more frequent court oversight. It also integrates tribal jurisdictions by requiring that comparable notice and filing rules apply when an individual is domiciled on tribal land. Overall, the bill would change the length of time incompetent defendants linger in county jails, clarify how reports and treatment plans must be filed, and amend communication among DHHS, county attorneys, mental health boards, and the courts.

The Supreme Court notes that LB 350 will affect judicial workload, but the extent of that impact cannot yet be determined.
