Explanation of Estimate:

LB630 amends the Occupational Therapy Practice Act to revise definitions, expand scope of practice, and modify licensure requirements. Any new types of credentials created by LB630 will require the modification of the Occupational Licensure Unit licensure database.

These modifications may or may not require additional cost; the current contract has accounted for ongoing maintenance of the system, but it is unknown at this time whether the changes due to LB630 will exceed what is allowed in the contract. If not covered, there would be additional cost through development of a change order with the vendor.
