LB 524 increases the fines for persons found guilty of handicapped parking infractions. The penalty for a first offense is increased from up to $100 to up to $150 and for a second offense from up to $200 to up to $300. The penalty for a third offense is raised from up to $300 to up to $500.

The increase in fines may result in an unknown increase in revenue. Any increase in revenue will be received by the county in which the infraction occurs for use by the public schools.
