LB 652, 522, 653A,
890A, 903A

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Debate is ceased. The Chair recognizes Senator Marsh to close on your amendment.

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We have stayed pretty quiet today as we have listened to debate on this bill, and if some of you noticed, I stayed very quiet this morning. As a parent of a highly gifted student who is currently tutoring highly gifted students through the Lincoln Public Schools, I cringe at what LB 652 is attempting to do without regard to its affects in the future. I also feel that religion is a very important part of my life and those around me. Because of that, I think we need minimum in spite of what Senator Koch says that high school is asking too much of a teacher, I believe that a teacher should have completed high school. I hope that in your heart you also agree that that is a very minimum qualification. Please try to have the minimum be part of this legislation which is moving quickly now to termination.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question is the adoption of the Marsh amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. A record vote has been requested. Record. All those in favor of going under Call vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 16 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The House is under Call. All legislators return to your seats, unauthorized personnel leave the floor.

CLERK: Mr. President, while we are waiting for the members to check in, I have a report from Public Works regarding a confirmation hearing.

I have a gubernatorial appointment from the Governor.

Senators Cullan, Kahle, Vard Johnson, and Nichol would like to print amendments to LB 522.

Mr. President, a new A bill, 903A offered by Senator Carstens, (Read title); LB 890A by Senator Vickers and Koch, (Read title); and LB 653A by Senator Koch, (Read title). (See pages 1078-1079, Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: All legislators must be in their seats according to the rules. Senator Schmit, Senator Lamb. Vard Johnson, Senator Lamb, Senator Labedz. Senator Marsh, can we call the roll now? There are three absent at the moment.
