And Senator Dworak would like to print amendments to LB 421 in the Journal, Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: The Speaker has an announcement.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Since we will be out of business before we adjourn this afternoon, we are going to make up a special list of bills that had been considered originally and that sheet will be on your desk after you come back and it includes bills, if you will take the Work Sheet, it includes bills that start with #226 and ends with #127, but these will be spelled out in detail as you go to lunch and they will be put on your desk. So you are moving faster than we can keep up with but we bring the list so that you don't get lost in the bills as to where they are. So it will be on your desk this afternoon when we go back into business.

SPEAKER MARVEL PRESIDING

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Carsten, would you like to recess us until about one-twenty...one-thirty.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, I move we recess until one-thirty.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All those in favor of that motion say aye, opposed no. The motion is carried. We are recessed.

SENATOR CLARK: Read the amendment.

CLERK: (Read the Landis amendment as found on page 844 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you. This amendment to my amendment does what it was I told you I wanted to accomplish. I appreciate the assistance of those in the lobby and those on the floor who helped to redraft it to capture this idea. It is exactly the idea I told you before, but I had unfortunately not caught the one section of the language that I was offering and its implications. That was brought to my attention, after having had my head stoved in by a two by four to get my attention, I was a little recalcitrant and voices got a little high and tempers ran a little hot. But this amendment puts the 335 language in this form. The child abuse, the law stays the way it was prior to 335. Obligations to report remain the same, and that means everybody reports. This amendment then goes back to the principle that I enunciated before, for adult abuse the privileges that we previously passed would apply to the adult abuse sections. Those privileges are the attorney, client, the clergy, the physician patient,
