PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Mr. President and colleagues, the resolution is set out on page 550 of the Journal. Senator Muskie, former Secretary of State Muskie, is coming to UNL for a three-day seminar in early April and we have checked with faculty members at the University who are sponsoring that seminar and they have given us permission to invite the former Secretary of State to briefly address the Legislature some time at the mutual convenience of everyone involved when he is here in town. I needn't really say very much to all of you about the former Secretary of State. He, of course, has had one of the most illustrious political careers of any living public servant, and I think we would all benefit greatly by having him come to visit us and speak to us for 20 or 25 minutes on matters of current national and international interest. So I would ask you to support this resolution and invite Secretary Muskie so we can have the benefit of his appearance. Thank you, Mr. President.
